When the rumored whereabouts of Osama bin Laden is revealed, the operations identify a move to the New World for the mission of a lifetime. Despite inconclusive evidence that bin Laden is inside the compound, and warning the possible ramifications of an unannounced attack on Pakistan, the Pentagon orders the attack. The SEAL Team is sent to complete the mission. In a quiet first showdown, the Navy SEALs storm the compound and kill America's most hated enemy.

"WE GIVE THANKS TO THE COUNTLESS INTELLIGENCE AND COUNTERTERRORISM PROFESSIONALS WHO WORKED TIRELESSLY TO ACHIEVE THIS OUTCOME. THE AMERICAN PEOPLE DO NOT SEE THEIR WORK NOR KNOW THEIR NAMES... WE ALSO (GIVE) THANKS TO THE MEN WHO CARRIED OUT THIS OPERATION, FOR THEY EXEMPLIFY PATRIOTISM, PROFESSIONALISM AND UNPARALLELED COURAGE OF THOSE WHO SERVE OUR COUNTRY."

-PRESIDENT OBAMA, MAY 2, 2011

I know now the ultimate outcome of the president's decision to green-light the raid. But what was fascinating to me were all the potentially disastrous outcomes that could have occurred if the president had decided to give the go-ahead to the raid that the movie highlights. It hopefully illustrates the challenges of making a decision that could have derailed a presidency."

- DIRECTOR JOHN STOCKWELL

THE DECADE THAT MADE US

The decade included conspicuous consumption, sports super-stars, and the first female political leaders. It's the history of our modern world, spanning a political, technological, cultural and social revolution that began in the United States and went on to dominate the world.
